Learning Outcomes

- Define "Personal Learning Networks" for the purpose of understanding their impact on being an effective mathematics leader

- Establish a personal learning network for continued professional growth

- Reflect on the "7 Pillars of Digital Leadership in Education"

Essential Question

How can building your personal learning network impact your effectiveness as a mathematics leader?
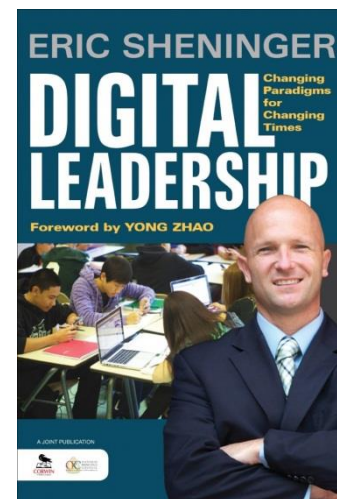

What is a PLN?

What is a Personal Learning Network?

"PLNs can be defined as collections of like-minded people with whom one exchanges information and engages in conversation. These conversations focus on mutual interests and goals, with the main objective of professional growth and improvement."

Digital Leadership, Changing Paradigms for Changing Times,

- Eric Sheninger, 2014

How do these ideas connect to your philosophy of effective leadership?

Digital Leadership focuses on:

- a consistent pursuit of innovation,
- effective integration of technology,
- quality professional development,
- transparency,
- celebration of successes from which others may learn,
- establishment of relationship with stakeholders,
- an open mind,
- and anticipation of continued change.

Reinvent

"Digital leadership flies in the face of That's the way we've always done it and allows us to reinvent education."
*Digital Leadership, Changing Paradigms for Changing Times,
Eric Sheninger, 2014*

The world is constantly changing.

How are we changing with it?
